

Learning Outcomes:

A. Knowledge and Understanding:

Upon successful completion of the Program, graduates should be able to:

- A1. Develop an understanding of knowledge in managing functional aspects of business practices.
- A2. Demonstrate a comprehensive understanding of concepts and methods in managing complex oil and gas operations.

B. Cognitive/ Intellectual Skills:

Upon successful completion of the program, graduates should be able to:

- B1. Analyze the role of management functions in the development of business strategy and decision-making processes.
- B2. Identify and analyze various managerial decisions in oil and gas industry.
- B3. Evaluate and assess oil and gas prospects, investment proposals, alternatives and opportunities.

C. Practical and Professional Skills:

Upon successful completion of the program, graduates should be able to:

- C1. Apply the principles and skills of management in several business areas.
- C2. Implement fundamentals, methods and techniques in managing oil and gas operations.
- C3. Apply information technology applications in managing business processes.
- C4. Conduct and present scientific research in various fields of Management.

D. General and Transferable Skills:

Upon successful completion of the program, graduates should be able to:

- D1. Communicate effectively using English language in both written and oral communication skills in business situations.
- D2. Work effectively with team members by displaying the needed competencies to contribute to the overall performance.